The Chair of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors, Hilda L. Solis, joined LA community leaders to announce a Los Angeles County motion in support of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) implementing strong federal rules to address predatory lending practices by payday, car title, and high cost installment lenders. If approved, Los Angeles County would be the largest county in California to pass a motion supporting strong rules by the CFPB to better protect consumers.

"This motion is an important way for the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors to demonstrate that we believe protecting families and their pocketbooks is good public policy and that we strongly support the CFPB finalizing a rule that will prioritize borrowers over ill-gotten profits," comments Supervisor Solis.
